ABOUT THIS WINERY

Cambridge Distillery is in the historic city of Cambridge, United Kingdom. William and Lucy Lowe started Cambridge Distillery in 2011 with the vision to make gins that could capture the taste of the English seasons using fresh botanicals grown in and around their home in Cambridge. William Lowe is the first ever master distiller to become Master of Wine.

TASTING NOTES

Bright and crystal clear. Light intensity nose. Fresh profile reminiscent of an English country garden in summer. Dry palate, light bodied, subtle complexity with fresh basil and warming rosemary. Elegant top notes of rose balance the firm juniper backbone. Lively, almost effervescent citrusy finish from lemon verbena. Well integrated alcohol.

PRODUCT NOTES

Traditional juniper combines with fresh basil, rosemary, rose petal, angelica seed, blackcurrant leaf and the effervescent citrus finish of lemon verbena. The result is an homage to both our heritage and to the aromatic, sensorial delight of an English meadow at the height of summer.
