ABOUT THIS WINERY

The history of Marchesi Mazzei is the story of Tuscany, uniting the family and famous region since the 11th century. The winery's roots in the territory span over 600 years and continue to expand through new wineries and vineyards, including Castello di Fonterutoli in the heart of Chianti Classico, Belgardo in Maremma (Tuscany), Zisola in Noto (Sicily) and Prosecco house Villa Marcello in Treviso (Veneto).

TASTING NOTES

Elegant, intense, underbrush and peaty notes, great complexity and persistence

PRODUCT NOTES

Food pairing: Pasta with game, stews, seasoned cheese

PRODUCTION NOTES

The unique characteristics of Noto "terroir" meet a great single-variety, creating a wine intriguing and rich of personality. The name "Effe Emme" (the Italian spelling of FM) refers to Filippo Mazzei's monogram, "stitched" on a wine unique as a tailor made cloth.
