ABOUT THIS WINERY

The history of Marchesi Mazzei is the story of Tuscany, uniting the family and famous region since the 11th century. The winery's roots in the territory span over 600 years and continue to expand through new wineries and vineyards, including Castello di Fonterutoli in the heart of Chianti Classico, Belguardo in Maremma (Tuscany), Zisola in Noto (Sicily) and Prosecco house Villa Marcello in Treviso (Veneto).

TASTING NOTES

Concerto was born in 1981, as an effect of a viticulture with an unexpressed potential, experimenting new training systems and new blends, including also non-autochthonous varieties; it was one of the forerunners and also one of the top 10 players of the Super Tuscans phenomenon. Rich and juicy, notes of underbrush and black berries, powerful and fine.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Hand picked harvest. Fermentation at 26-28°C. Maceration for 14-18 days. Aged in small French oak barrels - tonneaux (Sangiovese), barriques (Cabernet Sauvignon) - for 18 months. 3 months finissage in concrete tanks.
