ABOUT THIS WINERY

The story begins at Château Paul Mas in Conas hamlet, in the splendid town of Pézenas, the city of famous playwright Molière. The estates then expanded to Montagnac, with Nicole vineyard and Mas des Tannes. In 1954, Paul Mas develops the vineyard to 120 ha (296 acres) with his brother, Maxime Mas. In 1987, Paul Mas gives 35 ha to his son, Jean-Claude, who creates 13 years later Domaines Paul Mas.

TASTING NOTES

Limpid and clear colour with green highlights. Aromatic nose with notes of lemon/lime combined with gooseberry and pink grapefruit. A touch of fresh cut grass adds elegance to the nose. Well-balanced palate, with refreshing acidity and notes of exotic fruit. Serve at the aperitif. Also with sushi, seafood, salads or fresh goat's cheese.

PRODUCT NOTES

Paul Mas vineyards are situated in the Languedoc region of South of France between Pézenas and Montpellier, 10 km from the Mediterranean. The labels feature "Vinus the heron", the emblem of the vineyards, in front of the Conas castle where Paul Mas story started.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Destemming. Pneumatic pressing. Racking at 10°C to clarify the wine. Free-run juice and press juice are vinified separately. Fermentation at low temperature with selected yeasts. The press wine is then partially blended with the free-run wine. Ageing on its lees for 2 months prior to bottling.
