ABOUT THIS WINERY

Château Cailleteau Bergeron is a family vineyard since 1933, located in the appellation area of Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux. For nearly 100 years, generation after generation, the Dartier family has been producing wines of quality and pleasure. The estate is in the town of Mazion, in the Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux appellation area, 40 kilometers north of Bordeaux. The area has more than 5,000 feet, on gentle slopes, facing south-southwest

TASTING NOTES

Purple colour, the nose is very fruity (cherry, morello cherry, blackcurrant) and a little buttery. In the mouth, the tannins are present with a nice freshness.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Freshly harvested grapes are crushed and yeasted quickly using a tank foot prepared 6 days before the harvest in order to use indigenous yeasts. After alcoholic fermentation, the wine is cooled to 18°C for the malolactic process, then to 15°C to control the microorganisms. It is aged in stainless steel vats and amphora to smooth out the tannins. After 7 months of ageing, the wine is bottled.
