ABOUT THIS WINERY

Bornos Bodegas & Viñedos is a shared concept that brings together all wineries, brands, vineyards and wine varieties of the association. It is a wine Group in which the various wineries that comprise it maintain their own history, personality, and positioning, while at the same time, being governed by a common philosophy and working methods, based on quality and innovation.

TASTING NOTES

Deep red cherry colour. Good intensity of red and black fruits aromas, spicy with toasted, pastry and light balsamic notes at the end. Powerful, fresh, and structured palate. Ripe black fruit with spicy and balsamic notes. Well-integrated wood. Long and lingering finish.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Mechanical harvesting. In temperature-controlled stainless steel vats fermentation at 26°C for 15 days. Aged for at least 9 months in 50% French and 50% American oak barrels.
