ABOUT THIS WINERY

Raised by the Alves family, founder of Riberalves Group, Adegamãe is born as a tribute from the men to the family's matriarch, Manuela Alves. At the same time, it serves as an inspiration to a place of birth and creation, in which the intention is to enhance the best grapes and to create the finest wines. Adegamãe comes from the junction of the words adega, meaning cellar in Portuguese and mãe which means mother.

TASTING NOTES

Ruby coloured. A very complex aroma with mixed notes of wild blackberries and cherries, a hint of vegetable and resinous notes. In the mouth it is voluminous with very ripe tannins. It has a long, toasty finish.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Harvested manually in 18kg boxes. Total destemming. Pre-fermentative Maceration for 2 days. Temperature-controlled fermentation for 2 weeks. Aged for 12 months in French oak barrels.
