ABOUT THIS WINERY

Raised by the Alves family, founder of Riberalves Group, Adegamãe is born as a tribute from the men to the family's matriarch, Manuela Alves. At the same time, it serves as an inspiration to a place of birth and creation, in which the intention is to enhance the best grapes and to create the finest wines. Adegamãe comes from the junction of the words adega, meaning cellar in Portuguese and mãe which means mother.

TASTING NOTES

Bright red colour. Enticing notes of red fruit and black cherry; the freshness of cassis and touches of spices come together harmoniously in a delicate aromatic expression. Smooth, fruity wine with silky tannins balanced by bright acidity; sleek, lively finish.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Manual harvest into 18kg boxes. Completely destemmed. Prefermentation maceration for 2 days. Fermentation under controlled temperature for 15 days. Post-fermentation maceration period of 10 days. Ageing in new French oak barrels for 10 months.
