ABOUT THIS WINERY

The Guignard family is an historic family in the Graves region. Since 1996, the 3 Guignard brothers, Pascal, Dominique et Bruno took over the destiny of Guignard Vineyards. Located in the south of the Graves Appellation, on a geological terrace called Léognan, the Guignard Vineyards benefit from an exceptional terroir, resulting from a long and complex history, closely linked to the birth of the Garonne River.

TASTING NOTES

Delicate nose of grapefruit and white flowers. Fine and elegant but also rich on the palate. Very cool with these citrus and grapefruit aromas, white fruits (pear, white peach). Fresh and pure. Well balanced.

PRODUCT NOTES

In 1990, the 3 Guignard brothers, already owners of other wine estates in the Graves appellation, acquired Château Perron. The exceptional quality of the terroir makes possible to produce these wines: the soil is gravel and stones. Gravelly soil overlooking the Brion valley.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Skin contact vinification. Aging on its lees.
