ABOUT THIS WINERY

Château Cailleteau Bergeron is a family vineyard since 1933, located in the appellation area of Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux. For nearly 100 years, generation after generation, the Dartier family has been producing wines of quality and pleasure. The estate is in the town of Mazion, in the Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux appellation area, 40 kilometers north of Bordeaux. The area has more than 5,000 feet, on gentle slopes, facing south-southwest

TASTING NOTES

Pale pink color. Very fruity and floral aroma. Palate is refreshing with notes of strawberries and citrus fruits. The finish is long and tangy. Ideal as an aperitif with appetizers, as an accompaniment to mixed salads and Mediterranean cuisine.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The harvest for this vintage is small per hectare and of very good quality. Night harvest to preserve all the qualities of the grapes, direct pneumatic pressing. Fermentation at low temperature (18°C) and aging in stainless steel vats on lees with 'bâtonnage'.
