ABOUT THIS WINERY

Raised by the Alves family, founder of Riberalves Group, Adegamãe is born as a tribute from the men to the family's matriarch, Manuela Alves. At the same time, it serves as an inspiration to a place of birth and creation, in which the intention is to enhance the best grapes and to create the finest wines. Adegamãe comes from the junction of the words adega, meaning cellar in Portuguese and mãe which means mother.

TASTING NOTES

Boasting a generous aromatic intensity, this wine shows its youth in a fine concentration of citric notes and tropical aromas; medium-bodied with refreshing acidity and delicate creaminess; smooth, it delivers good fruit and a dash of salinity on the finish. Serve with any type of fish and shellfish. Combines perfectly with sushi and salads.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Lightly pressed, decanted at low-temperature, fermented at 14-15°C for 15 days, then bâtonnage on fine lees for 4 months.
