ABOUT THIS WINERY

Raised by the Alves family, founder of Riberalves Group, Adegamãe is born as a tribute from the men to the family's matriarch, Manuela Alves. At the same time, it serves as an inspiration to a place of birth and creation, in which the intention is to enhance the best grapes and to create the finest wines. Adegamãe comes from the junction of the words adega, meaning cellar in Portuguese and mãe which means mother.

TASTING NOTES

Rich aromatic profile conveying minerality and freshness in contrast with tropical fruit, melted butter and well framed wood deriving from the barrels where the wine fermented; the palate brings good volume and unctuousity, reminiscent of Burgundy wine in all its lively freshness. A long finish with quality fruit shows promise of good evolution.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Destemmed, lightly pressed, cold settled, fermentation in 400L French oak barrels. Bâtonnage for 9 months.
