ABOUT THIS WINERY

Raised by the Alves family, founder of Riberalves Group, Adegamãe is born as a tribute from the men to the family's matriarch, Manuela Alves. At the same time, it serves as an inspiration to a place of birth and creation, in which the intention is to enhance the best grapes and to create the finest wines. Adegamãe comes from the junction of the words adega, meaning cellar in Portuguese and mãe which means mother.

TASTING NOTES

Red ruby colour with considerable depth; subtle aromas, showing a complex aromatic profile through floral notes, fresh red fruit and hints of balsamic in harmonised and delicate balance; this wine offers good, well-balanced acidity against a delicate tannin structure; fair and smooth-bodied, with an intensely fruited finish.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Pre-fermentation maceration for 2 days, fermentation in stainless steel vats at a controlled temperature (22-25°C) for 2 weeks. Partial aged in used French oak barrels.
