ABOUT THIS WINERY

This a long story, the main character being the vine. Over centuries, generation after generation have cultivated the grapes. In 1989 Sylvain Fadat decide to take over the vineyards. Gradually, the cellar was enlarged, and the vineyard developed over two distinct terroirs. The vines are located on the first foothills of Larzac, in Languedoc, in the geographical era Terrasses du Larzac, Montpeyrroux denomination.

TASTING NOTES

A dark garnet color with purple highlights. Aromas of small red fruits and spices, of scrubland grass, intense on the palate with a fresh and thirst-quenching finish. Will accompany a fillet of beef with chanterelles or any red meat and game.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Terraces on clay-limestone hillsides. Limestone scree (Final Jurassic) alternating, depending on the slope, with blue marl from the Miocene (marine deposits with ostrea fossils). Maceration (15 to 20 days) with punching down. 30 months in small tuns and non-new barrels.
